

The 11th Petrochemical Equipment Experience Exchange Meeting

Held in Fuzhou

On 29th Nov, the 11th Petrochemical Equipment Engineering Risk Prevention and Control Technology and Integrity Management Experience Exchange Meeting held in Fuzhou, Fujian Province. Liu Sanjiang, President of CSEI, Wang Bing, Manager of Hefei General Machinery Research Institute, Xu Feng, Division Director of the Special Equipment Safety Supervision Bureau of SAMR, Zeng Fengxiong, Consultant of the Special Equipment Safety Supervision Department of Fujian Market Supervision Administration, Wang Jianjun and He Chenghou, the Chief Experts of Sinopec, Luo Guanghui, Senior Director of Refining and Chemical Branch of China National Petroleum Corporation and Wu Xingbin, Vice-General Manager of Shenhua Group Co., Ltd. attended the meeting.

At the meeting, Xu Feng analyzed the new risks facing the industry and made suggestions on strengthening the construction of the RBI database and the revision of regulations and standards. Liu Sanjiang introduced the latest progress of risk prevention and control technology, and according to the current new generation of information technology, envisioned to the development direction of RBI technology. Vice President Li Jun made a report entitled "Special Equipment Administrative Licensing Reform".

More than 170 experts and technicians from more than 60 units nationwide participated in the meeting. A total of 44 academic papers were received at the conference, and 10 experts made reports on the conference.